Dr. Gilb 3/4/62

This month's Berkeley Women's Democratic Forum meeting has been scheduled Thursday at the Woolsey St. home of Mrs. Albert Raeburn.

Business will begin at 10:30 a.m., with President Mrs. Donald Parkin presiding.

Dr. Corinne Gilb, professor of history and government at Mills College, is feature speaker on the afternoon program, which follows a noon salad luncheon.

Now on leave from Mills, Dr. Gilb is presently a research associate at the University of California, engaged in a study of Law and Society. She will address the Forum on the topic, "The Structure of Political Parties."

The meeting is open to the public.
