

SOME NEW BOOKS FROM ATHERTON PRESS FOR 2002 AND 2003!

CITIES IN THE WORLD – AN HISTORICAL SERIES

BY CORINNE LATHROP GILB

VOL 1 THE WORLD'S EARLIEST CITIES, AN INTRODUCTION
(FROM EARLIEST TIMES TO c30 B.C.E.)

VOL 2 CITIES WHEN ASIA OUTWEIGHED ROME
(FROM c30 B.C.E TO c650 B.C.E.)

VOL 3 CITIES WHEN ISLAM AND CHRISTIANITY BECAME ASCENDANT
(633 TO EARLY 13TH CENTURY)

VOL 4 CITIES BEFORE THE EUROPEANS CAME
(c1200 TO 1500)

These books, written from a world perspective, are both narrative and analytical, seeing cities in their geographical, ecological, geopolitical, economic and cultural contexts. They are fully documented, abundantly illustrated with maps, city plans and pictures, and contain tables of dates and city sizes and reading lists. They are intended to be useful to educated non-specialists.

Available now, a pamphlet by:

BORIS S. ERASOV, HOLDING RUSSIA TOGETHER (ISBN 0-967671-0-2, 1999)

Written by the former research coordinator at Moscow's Institute of Oriental Studies, giving his perspective on how to hold the Russian federation together despite its ethnic diversity. Also contains an historical date chart and tables of information about Russian ethnic groups.

Scheduled for 2003, a book about:

SEVERAL AUTHORS, COMPARATIVE MINDSETS

Art, music, dance, mathematics and architecture in various historical cultural contexts.

Atherton Press seeks manuscripts from highly qualified scholars with a world perspective who can combine both history and comparative analysis and at the same time communicate with non-specialists. Manuscripts about legal institutions are especially welcome.
