
GILB, Tyrell 'Tye' — At rest at home in Atherton, CA, Friday, July 6, 2001. Beloved husband of 56 years to Dr. Corrine Lathrop Gilb. Loving father of Tom Gilb of Oslo, Norway, Wendy Bartlett of Berkeley, Linda Queen of London, England, Lesley Taplin of Santa Monica and Tyra Gilb of Interlochen, Michigan; loving brother of Adele Gilb Travis of Granite Shoals, Texas; devoted grandfather of ten and greatgrandfather of five. Age 84 years.

Tye is most remembered as "the product father of the connector and hanger industry" and as the creator of 70 patented and hundreds of other designs during his 35 years at Simpson Manufacturing Company. His creativity was active in many other fields as well, such as early computer optical aids for the blind and orthopedic devices. He usually was president or vice president of construction related companies. A native of Los Angeles, he did his undergraduate work at the University of Washington and graduate work at Harvard University.

Friends are invited to attend a remembrance service to be held at WHITE OAKS CHAPEL on Thursday, July 12, 2001 at 1:30 pm. Interment will follow at Skylawn Memorial Park.
